Will Play Role of Mother in Revised Edition of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room" and Demolish Stage Saloons.

"I'LL TRY TO BE NATURAL AND WON'T USE MAKE UP."

Every Dollar She Makes to Building Homes for the Witlows of Drunkards.

"I warn you, Simon Slade, to beware of me, the mother of Willie

As these words were hurled at him a man with lowering brow and a one-night-stand constitution cringed in a well he might, for Willie Hammond's mother was none other than Carrie Nation, disguised as an actress, without the aid of a dog or high heels "The Carrie Nation Company," as the bill-boards, barrels and sides, of barns will have 't, was rehearsing "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room." which has been rewritten to enable the Kansas hatchet swinger to introduce her saloon-smashing specialty.

Asked how it happened she was not be the avenging spirit of "War on brink," as first announced, Mrs. Nation

"I wouldn't appear in that piece because it had too much fun in it. Tain't no time to laugh when I come on the stage. Folks have got enough other plays to laugh at. I want to give 'em something that will make em think. I'm sorry that 'Hatchitation,' the play I'm writing for myself, isn't ready. But 'Ten Nights in a Bar-Room' has been fixed over to suit

New Role for Mrs. Nation. "What is that?"

character for me. I'm going to be Mrs. Hammond, mother of the boy who kills himself.

"After warning the saloonkeeper I commence to smash. I give an object lesson of a saloon smashing a mother's boy, and then I smash the saloon that smashed the boy."

Mrs. Nation confessed she knew very little about the theatre-that she had witnessed but three plays, "Julius Caesar," "Rip Van Winkle" and "Camille." She said she wouldn't care to Despite her limited knowledge of the theatré. Mrs. Nation declared she was sure she would be a success.

"You know," she said, "I'm a natural ectress, and when I go on the stage not to pose. That's what makes me a good actress. If I can get before tion and capture. audience the audience is mine. It an audience the audience is mine. It took me a long time to make up my window when she noticed a well-dressed man go on the stage, however. Before I accepted this offer I prayed a whole day and night. Then, sudden-ty-eighth street, and ring the bell. Then, sudden-ty-eighth street, and ring the bell. It was sitting in her library local manday. He will be sixty-one years old.

Mrs. Smith was sitting in her library local manday. He will be sixty-one years old.

Mr. Deane takes care of all of Charles T. Barney's realty deals. He is constituted in the bell. ly. I knew what to do.

Will Not Use Any Make-Up. "My life has been a revelation to me. When I was a girl I never dreamed eight, I'm going to make my first

"No." said the rising star, "I'll be home person. I'm going on just as God made me. I shall wear a princesse dress, like this," pulling out the She told the others to watch the front shim, and in the course of their talk said:

May Use a Little Rouge. Mrs. Nation admitted she might put a touch of rouge on her cheeks, but gave her word she wouldn't pencil her gave her word she wouldn't believe to course," she explained, "I don't believe in painting the face, and I couldn't be hired to do it anywhere size than on the stage. But they tell me the footlights make you look a fright if you haven't got a little color fright if you haven't got a little color on.

"I've been criticised for going on the stage, but I don't see why, since I'm going to give every cent I make for the purpose of erecting homes for the widows of drunkards. And then, too, I want to take the stage for God. The pulpit's but a stage, after ali. Sometimes you'll find the greatest actors in the pulpit. Sometimes they're nothing but actors. You're apt to find more 'real' in people of the stage than in people of the pulpit.

"One reason why I'm going on the stage is that I'm fishing. I think that theatre-goers are, as a class, lost. And I'm after the fish that go to the theatre." Mrs. Nation will begin smashing stage saloons at Perth Amboy a week from Saturday night.

Recorder Goff Says that Detectives Must Not Extort Confessions. Recorder Goff in General Sessions today took occasion to denounce the practice of Central Office detectives in obtaining confessions from persons they arrest for felonies.

During the trial of Jame Sorahan, conbrother Henry, it developed that Detective McMullen, who arrested Sorahan, had taken him into a saloon and allowed

GENTLE CARRIE DRAWS THE

"Smashing," said Carrie, with an WOMAN PROVES TO CARNEGIE'S CREED BE A REAL SLEUTH

Mrs. Walter K. Smith, of Brook- John Hall Deane, Who Agrees lyn, Sees Man Enter Window of House Across the Street and Follows Him.

When William Brant was arraigned in police court in Brooklyn to-day, accused of burglary, Mrs. Walter K. I'm going to try to be natural and Smith, of No. 1107 Thirty-eighth street, ping $100,000 into the collection plate in

Mrs. Smith was sitting in her library next Monday. He will be sixty-one basement window. She saw him working at the fastening Mr. Deane is responsible for bringand finally watched him as he disap- ing the Rev. Dr. Edward Judson to that some day I should go before the peared into the house. Getting her hat this city. public. And now, at the age of fifty- and coat she ran abross the street. First Dr. Judson was pastor of the Baptist eight, I'm going to make my first she aroused the people in the house ad- Church at Orange, N. J., from 1875 to joining the Fairchilds and then went to 1881. In 1881 he became convinced

She rapped on the pane and says she the president of the Baptist City Mis-

School.

Orders have been issued to the police f Harlem to arrest all drivers who attmept to cross streets at a fast gait dur ing the hours when children are either going to or coming from school. The was the result of an arrest to-day and the filing of a number of complaints DENOUNCES THIRD DEGREE, at the police stations by anylous moth-

John Gerald, a milkman, whose place of business is at One Hundred and Four teenth street and Second avenue, drove through a crowd of school children to Thirty-fourth street and Eighth avenue The children scattered in every direction and it was only a matter of luck that all of them escaped the wheels of the victed of manslaughter for killing his wagon. Policeman Ennis saw the reck-brother Henry, it developed that Detecand he stopped him. An arrest followed. In the Harlem Court Magistrate Crane read the milkman a caustic letter on the law. He fined him $10, but promised to do more than that if it ever happened

> District Judge Estee Dead. HONOLULU, Oct. 28.—United States District Judge M. M. Estee died here this morning of prostration following an operation performed two days ago for kidney trouble.

APPEALS TO HIM

that It Is a Crime to Die Rich, Sends Out Invitations for His Sixty-first Birthday.

John Hall Deane, the lawyer, who gained fame some years ago by drop-Brooklyn, told her story of his detec-out invitations for his birthday dinner

When no one answered he went to the money, and, like Andrew Carnegie, be lieves it is a crime to die rich.

cesse dress, like this," pulling out the skirt of her white gown. "I've worn this same kind of dress for thirty years.

"I won't wear any corsets—(it that in). Corsets is what disfigures women. You see 'em every day going down the street, looking like broken-backed ducks. If I was a man and was going to propose to a girl. do you know what would be the first question I'd ask her?"

All assembled shook their heads. "I'd say to her. 'Do you wear corsets?" And if she said 'Yes, I'd drop her like a hot cake. A man who doesn't want to marry a deformed woman shouldn't marry a woman who wears corsets."

May Use a Little Rouse. suggested that he might be able to lease a small building in the lower west side, and begin his mission work there. "The best way, I think," said Mr. Deane.

FROM FAST DRIVERS

"The best way, I think," said Mr. Deane,
"for you to begin here would be as pastist church was made vacant by the death of the pastor.

Dr. Judson accepted the call, and for two years his salary was paid by Mr.
Deane. Then Mr. Deane met some financial losses, and John D. Rockefelter, at the sollcitation of Mr. Deane, gave generously to the work in the lower west side, with which Mr. Judson was identified, with which Mr. Judson was identified.

And one of the results of that work was the erection of the Judson Memorial Church, in Washington Square.

MRS. WRIGHT NOT

Denies that She Told Aldermen She Contemplated Erecting a $2,000,000 Institution on the League Ball Grounds.

Mrs. J. Hood Wright denied to-day that she had told to the members of the Board of Aldermen yesterday that $2,000,000 hospital on the site of the present one, or that she said she would not build it until the present American League ball ground was done away

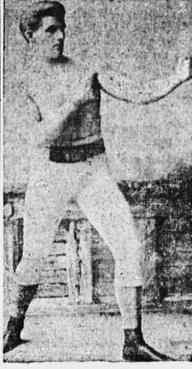

Mrs. Wright said that, as a taxpaver on property near the site of the ball ground, she had joined her voice with other property holders in seeking to have streets cut through the ball pari but had intimated nothing about build

TLE CARRIE DRAWS THE LINE TWIXT CHURCH AND STAGE. GIANTS OF THE PRIZE RING CURED BY SWAMP-ROOT.

All These Famous Pugilists and Athletes Tell of Their Cure by This Wonderful Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy and Say That It Added to Their Great Strength.

James J. Corbett, the Former Champion, Tells How He Was Cured.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 27, 1902. Gentlemen: About two years ago this ex tremely robust body of mine showed signs that something was wrong with it. My usual vigor gave place to a feeling of lassi-

JAS. J. CORBETT.

occasional spells of dizziness, and instead of my usual good appetite could hardly force myself to eat a meal. Two physicians whom I consulted said I had malaria, but their prescriptions did me no good. A third were out of order and advised me to take

I got half a dozen bottles, and could feel the benefit before I had finished the first one. By the time I had taken six bott i I felt I was cured. My appetite had come back, the headache had disappeared, and I felt as fit as the day I met Sullivan at New Orleans. As a pleasant and speedy remedy and a sure strength builder it gives me pleasure to recommend Swamp-Root to all my friends. Very truly

Jas. & leorbet "Jack" Root, Middle-Weight Wonder of the United States, Cured

CHICAGO, Ul., Nov. 25, 1902. Dr. Kilmer 2 Co., Binghamton, N. Y. A year ago I had severe trouble with a pain in the small of my back. This at times became so acute that I could minutes at a time. In addition, I found that I had to pass water an unusual number of times both day and night. My physician told me my kidneys and bladder were in bad shape. After two months' treatment with him I was worse instead of better. I had no appetite and no desire to take my regular exercise.

JACK ROOT.

About this time Peter Lowry, the trainer, came to Chicago, and as soon as he found out what ailed me said: "Get some Swamp-Root, Jack; that's the only thing." I took his advice, and after using half a dozen bottles was cured, and have since been as strong and in as fine condition as I ever was in my life.

Swamp-Root, in my opinion, is the only remedy. It gives you strength and makes you fit. minutes at a time. In addition, I found becoming well again.

Champion of the World, Cured by Weight Champion, Recommends

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4, 1902. or. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Gentlemen: It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to you and express my appreciation of the virtues of your won erful remedy. Swamp-Root. I was suffering with acute rheumatism and bladder roubles. It was only with the greatest difficulty and pain that I was able to pass water. After doctoring for some time I was no better and was about to consent to an operation, when a friend called my at-tention to Swamp-Root. I didn't have much faith. but was anxious to get well, and decided to give it a thorough trial. I soon felt better and continued its use. which brought away several gravel stones. My rheumatism disappeared, my organs performed their functions without discomfort, and I have not been troubled at all house, and I know that the occasional doses

Trainer Peter Lowry Insists on the Use of Swamp-Root.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 10, 1902. Gentlemen: In my business, that of trainer of pugilists, I consider Swamp-Root indispensable. It is rarely that I come in contact with a puglist who has not some affection of the kidneys, bladder or liver. This is but natural, as they travel a great they are obliged to drink has a tendency to sist that he shall take a certain quantity of walks of life.

great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 16, 1902.
Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
Gentlemen: Swamp-Root is the only thing which saved me from quitting the boxing profession. I was suffering from ated kidney and liver troubles whe

Almost every one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt, first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those Vital Organs, the Kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful man stand how it has cured thousands upon thousands in the more ordinary and less strenuous kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys are getting better pass water often during the day, and obliges you to get up many times during the night.

they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney and bladder trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Causes you to

SWAMP-ROOT GIVES STRENGTH

"Sailor" Sharkey, Heavy-Weight, as a Wonderful Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26, 1902. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Gentlemen: I had been in poor condition or a long time and had bad headaches and not much appetite. I didn't pay much attention to it until two years ago, when I was down and nearly out with terrible pains in my back and side.

A friend told me what Swamp-Root had done for him, and I bought some Before I had finished, the first bottle I knew I was on the right track. When I had taken three my rheumatic pains had all gone and my appetite was so good I thought I could never eat enough. I kept on taking Swamp-Root for some time after I knew I was tirely. Now I always keep it in the house in case my kidneys should ever bother me I have recommended Swamp-Root to sev a doctor. He examined my urine and told me I had kidney trouble. He treated men for a month and never did me any good. I had heard of several in my protession Root, and I finally tried it. The first both the satisfied me that I had found the right be Attell, 122-Pound Ringside Champion, Cured by Swamp-Root. SAN FRANCISCO. Cal., Nov. 9.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Gentlemen: Swamp-Root is undoubtedly one of the greatest remedies for a athlete one of the greatest remedies for a sthlete. I woke up marnings with a big head, and every muscle in my body would hurt me. A doctor told me it was only a cold, and precribed some medicine for me.

The case rot worse right along, and I tried every medicine recommended to me by my friends and doctors. The climax came about two weeks before one of my most important fights. I visited a noted health resort in Northern California in hopes of getting well. My backer was at the point of paying a big forfeit when Jim Corbett—who was also spending a few weeks at the Surings for recreation—recommended Dr.

that you have a wonderful remoly that does everything that you claim it will do. "Kid" Carter Testifies to the Great Remedy, Swamp-Root. PHILADELPHIA. Pa. Dec. 1, 1902.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Gentlumen: A while ago I had as pretty case of kidney and bladder trouble as any my strength and was a cured man.

and having but little appetite, paroling water too frequently and suffering from pains in my back and muscles. I went for being cured of the same trouble by Swamp medicine. I quit my doctor, and after taking several bottles of Swamp-Root my troubles had disappeared. I had regulared

And I have stayed cured. I am satisfied

Peter Maher, Irish Champion Heavy-Weight, Recommends

PHILADELPHIA. Pa., Nov. 15. 1008.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
Geotlemen: I hope my experience wilf induce others suffering as I did to give Swamp-Root a trial, I had known there was something wrong with my

Causes profuse or scanty supply of urine, with burning sensation. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; make your head ache and back ache, cause indigestion, stomach and liver had a pronounced case of rheumatism, and my left arm and back were so sore that at trouble; you get a sallow, yellow complexion; sometimes make you feel as though you times I could hardly bear the pain.

My triend Peter Lowry came to see me had heart trouble; you may get weak and waste away—these are all unmistakable signs one day when I was at my worst, and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce the day when I was at my worst and advoce

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended ness all right. By the time I had got swampby physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors themselves, because they recognize in Swamp-Root the greatest and most successful remedy that science has ever been able to discover or compound.

No matter how many doctors you have tried—no matter how much money you may have spent, you really owe it to yourself and to your family to at least give Swamp. Doc.

have spent, you really owe it to yourself and to your family to at least give Swamp-Root a trial. Its staunchest friends to-day are those who had almost given up hope of ever

To Prove What Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root Will Do for YOU, a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

SPECIAL NOTICE-If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney, liver or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book telling more about kidney and bladder trouble and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. When writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The New York Evening World.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is for sale at Drug Stores everywhere in bottles of two sizes and two prices-Fifty Cents and One Dollar.